

I am writing to recommend Ethan Dutcher for any management positions that he may be applying for. I have had the pleasure of working with him on a show called What The Food!?!? where he served as the coordinator for the crew and the sourcing of the unique and exotic foods for the show. During our time together, I had the opportunity to observe his management skills in action.

Ethan is an excellent manager who is capable of handling complex projects with a high degree of professionalism and organization. He is able to keep his team motivated and focused on the task at hand, while also ensuring that everyone is comfortable and supported in their roles.

Ethan's communication skills are exceptional, which has been critical to the success of our show. He has a talent for relaying important information to his team members in a clear and concise manner, which has helped us to stay on track and meet our deadlines. Additionally, he is an excellent listener and is always open to feedback from his team members, which has helped to create a positive and collaborative work environment.

In summary, I strongly recommend Ethan for any management positions that he may be applying for. He is a talented, organized, and dedicated individual who is sure to excel in any leadership role that he takes on. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,
